

Scholarship for Military Dependent

Youth

The Enlisted Spouses' Club is proud to announce our upcoming scholarship opportunity for Military Dependents.

Who can apply? High school seniors and continuing education students who are the child dependents of a military member from any branch, active duty, retired, deceased, reservist or National Guard. Military member must reside in the Fort Meade Area. Applicants must be enrolled as a full time student. Scholarships may be used at any accredited college, university, business or vocational school for one year.

Applicants are required to:

- Be a volunteer in their school or community
- Submit official transcripts for your junior year and first semester of your senior year in in High School
- Submit official transcripts from your appropriate higher level of education if you are a continuing education student
- Submit a completed application with supporting documentation as listed in the application package, available for download 4 February 2013 at <http://www.ftmeadeesc.org>

Scholarships may be used at any accredited college, university, business or vocational school for one year not to exceed the amount awarded.

If you have any questions please contact Patricia Baker at ScholarshipDirector@ftmeadeesc.org

Scholarship for Military Dependent

Youth

The Enlisted Spouses' Club is proud to announce our upcoming scholarship opportunity for Military Dependents.

Who can apply? High school seniors and continuing education students who are the child dependents of a military member from any branch, active duty, retired, deceased, reservist or National Guard. Military member must reside in the Fort Meade Area. Applicants must be enrolled as a full time student. Scholarships may be used at any accredited college, university, business or vocational school for one year.

Applicants are required to:

- Be a volunteer in their school or community
- Submit official transcripts for your junior year and first semester of your senior year in in High School
- Submit official transcripts from your appropriate higher level of education if you are a continuing education student
- Submit a completed application with supporting documentation as listed in the application package, available for download 4 February 2013 at <http://www.ftmeadeesc.org>

Scholarships may be used at any accredited college, university, business or vocational school for one year not to exceed the amount awarded.

If you have any questions please contact Patricia Baker at ScholarshipDirector@ftmeadeesc.org