FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Summer Concert Series

EVENT: The Volunteers of the Army Field Band

WHEN: Scheduled for August 2 at 7 p.m.

WHERE: Fort Meade Pavilion, located just inside the Llewellyn gate. (EDITOR'S NOTE: Media interested in attending this event must be escorted by a public affairs representative. To coordinate your visit and RSVP, please contact Rich Lane at 301-677-1573.

DIRECTIONS: From Maryland Route 295 North or South (Baltimore/Washington Parkway), take Maryland Route 175 East exit. Continue east until you reach the Llewellyn gate.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: The popular summer concert series featuring elements of the United States Army Field Band is scheduled for the first three weeks in August. This year's concerts will be held at the Fort Meade Pavilion to allow easier access for community members.

Each week will have a different theme. The Aug. 2 concert will feature The Volunteers, the United States Army's premier touring show band, performing an exciting blend of popular American music, including rock 'n' roll, standards, country, jazz, and patriotic selections.
