The screenshot shows the official homepage of the Installation Safety Office at Fort Meade. The header includes the U.S. Army logo and the website address www.ftmeade.army.mil. The main content area features a navigation menu, a sidebar with links to 'Safety Office homepage', 'Safety Programs', and 'Safety Tools', and a central article titled 'Installation Safety Office'. The article provides contact information (8501 Simonds St., Fort Meade, MD 20755-5005; 301-677-2396; 301-677-6147; usarmy.meade.lmcom.lst.iso-org-users@mail.mil) and a vision statement: 'A model safety office which incorporates recent technology Lean Six Sigma continuous process improvement or Kaizen and leverages all available resources. Kaizen is Japanese for "improvement" or "change for the better" and refers to philosophy or practices that focus on continuous improvement of processes in manufacturing, engineering and business management.' It also includes a mission statement excerpt and a goal: 'To contribute to a safe and secure environment (Goal 3 of Fort Meade's Strategic Action Plan)'. On the right side, there are social media links for Facebook, Twitter, and Flickr, a phone directory, a welcome guide, and a 'Need assistance?' section with 'SUICIDE PREVENTION' and 'SHARP' logos.
