FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Fort Meade adds two businesses to off-limits list

Fort Meade Garrison Commander COL Edward C. Rothstein added two local gas stations to the installation's list of off-limit areas and establishments.

The Exxon stations – 7898 Ridge Road in Hanover and 1318 Annapolis Road in Odenton - were placed on the list because they have sold synthetic marijuana, aka SPICE, to members of the Fort Meade community.

Fort Meade's Armed Forces Disciplinary Control Board recommended that the businesses be added to the list after the board met in October because the businesses posed a threat to the good order and discipline of the Fort.

Service members assigned to Fort Meade are barred from going to any off-limits establishment or area for any reason. Service members who go to these establishments may be punished under the Uniform Code of Military Justice.

Here is the full list of off-limits establishments:

Meade Village - Reece Road, Severn, MD (High-crime area)

Arwell Court – 2-block areas (formerly Pioneer City) Severn, MD (High-crime area)

Around the Clock Locksmith – Pasadena, MD (Unethical business practices)

Little Falls Area – Potomac, MD/VA (Unsafe rapids)

Exxon Gas Station – 1318 Annapolis Road, Odenton, MD (Selling SPICE)
